

A Presentation on Puberty to Promote Project-wide Proposals

Frank M. Biro, MD, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center

This presentation will discuss the physical changes of puberty in girls, when the changes occur in published studies, what the changes are associated with, and how to evaluate some of these changes. Data generated from the BCERC will be placed in context to some of the contemporary studies.